NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS
The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.
Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research. If a researcher makes a request for, or later uses a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of this "fair use," that researcher may be liable for copyright infringement.
This institution reserves the right to refuse a request for photocopying if, in the judgment of the professional staff, filling the request might violate copyright law.

I acknowledge that I have read and understood the above information and the Gary Public Library's Copy Use Agreement below and I hereby request the duplication of the materials listed below:

COPY USE AGREEMENT

1. The Gary Public Library (GPL) reserves the right to refuse a request for duplication of materials when, in the opinion of the professional staff, filling the request would risk damage to the item(s) being copied, the item is too fragile or is unprocessed.
2. Duplication of materials is made for private study, scholarship, or research use only; except as allowed by "fair use," copyrighted material may not be published or reproduced in any fashion without written permission of the copyright holder.
3. GPL provides photocopies/reproduction of items in its Indiana Room Collection as a service to researchers; fees charged reflect the Library's cost for providing this service. Duplication will be done by Library staff.
4. Upon receiving a request, GPL will make only one photocopy/reproduction of same material. If condition is not an issue, items will be photocopied/reproduced according to applicable copyright law, including the "fair use" provisions of the U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S. Code).
5. GPL does not own the copyright to the materials in its collections unless such rights have been specifically granted. It is the responsibility of the researcher requesting materials to secure permission from the copyright holder to publish or reproduce content for publication from materials found in the GPL's collection. GPL will not research copyright ownership.
6. By signing this form the researcher acknowledges that they have read and understood the Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions and related information printed on this form and assume responsibility for the use of the material.
7. The researcher also agrees that written permission must be secured from the copyright holder prior to publication of any and all duplicated material, and that they assume full and complete legal responsibility for any infringement of copyright that might occur from the use of publication of this material, and to indemnify the Gary Public Library for any and all losses, costs, or legal fees that accrue to the Gary Public Library through failure to obtain any appropriate permissions.
8. The researcher may not use or authorize others to use the items duplicated for any purpose other than what is listed on this form.
