Just Ernestine (Ernestine Bean) is a native of Gary and an author whose work explores grief, healing, identity, and restoration with clarity, compassion, and restraint. Drawing from lived experience, she creates space for honest reflection without pressure to perform. Her books range from adult devotionals and reflective studies to children's stories and honor emotional process, dignity, and timing. Across audiences, her voice is steady and trustworthy, guiding readers toward wholeness through presence, truth, and care.
